

Lieutenant Colonel Nora Linderman
United States Army
Long Term Family Case Management, Chief

LTC Linderman is currently program chief of Army Long Term Family Case Management (ALTFCM), a service of Casualty and Mortuary Affairs Operation Center (CMAOC). ALTFCM's support coordinators provide personalized long-term support and advocacy to Families of fallen Soldiers. The program also manages the disbursement of new Army and Government benefits and entitlements that are retroactive. Information on the program can be found at www.ALTFCM.army.mil.

LTC Linderman enlisted in USAR as an MP, and upon becoming an officer branched aviation and became a Rotary Wing Maintenance Test Pilot. She worked in Honduras with Joint Task Force Bravo, followed by being one of the first DIMAs assigned to Fort Rucker as an HHC commander ATB (AUG). After being grounded due to injury, she moved to 6th BDE (PD) 108th DIV (IT). While with 108th, LTC Linderman performed as Special Projects Officer and was an ROTC instructor at the University of Central Florida specializing in leadership training. She then served as the Executive Officer for the 1/417th BCT, 98th DIV (IT).

Following 9/11, LTC Linderman was called to duty to work for the Army G3 in Current Operations at the then new Army Mobilization Branch at HQDA, culminating in becoming a Senior Analyst and Operations Team Leader. In 2005, she became the Chief of Reserve Augmentation Programs for the USAREUR G3 where she remained until taking over ALTFCM.

Her awards and decorations include Army Reserve Component Achievement Medals, National Defense Security Medals, Global War on Terrorism Service Medal, Armed Forces Reserve Medal, Army Service Ribbon, Army Reserve Components Overseas Training Ribbon, Headquarters Department of the Army Staff Badge, and Meritorious Service Medals.

Between tours as a mobilized Reservist, LTC Linderman's civilian career included being an assistant director of an international security firm's investigative division, partner/CEO of a private legal investigative firm and certified emergency 911 operator instructor.

She earned her commission from Gannon University and graduated from Mercyhurst College with a B.A. in Criminal Justice. She is currently pursuing dual master's degrees at the University of Maryland: M.S. in Management – Homeland Security and an M.B.A.

LTC Linderman is married with four children.
